Desperate Conditions in Cincinnati and Lower River Towns.—Lawrenceburg Levee Lets Go Saturday.—Residents Flee In Safety To High Hills

Cincinnati, O., March 30.—Two companies of the Ninth United States infantry, stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky., are being held in readiness to march at an instant's notice to Covington, Ky., where Mayor Phillips fears the city may be in need of military protection, due to the high water that virtually is surrounding the town.

When the river stage reached more than 68 feet today the lighting plants, electric and gas, were put out of commission and the city is in darkness.

The soldiers were issued marching orders at the request of Mayor Phillips to the war department at Washington that troops be sent to this city. At the same time the mayor telegraphed a request to Governor McCreary that he declare martial law.

The request for United States troops was referred to Secretary of war Garrison and Major General Wood, who today returned from an inspection tour of the flooded district in Ohio. Later a conference was held at which Police Chief Henry Schuler pointed out that as yet the local authorities were in a position to cope with the situation, but it was decided that should developments warrant the city will avail itself of the nearness of the federal soldiery to patrol the city.

DAYTON'S PROBLEM

To Care for the Starving and the Homeless and Fight Off Disease is the Task of the Hour.

50,000 PEOPLE

Must Be Fed, Clothed and Housed for a Week More, Says Governor's Private Secretary—Twenty Thousand to Be Fed. Men Who Have Lost Their All Must Be Looked After Indefinitely Until They Become Once Again Self-sustaining.

George F. Burba

Private Secretary to Governor Cox Makes Statement of Conditions.

Dayton, O., March 30.—Here is the problem presented to Dayton tonight, as summarized by George F. Burba, secretary to Governor Cox and representing the latter here:

"Fifty thousand persons must be fed, clothed and housed for a week more.

"Twenty thousand persons must be cared for indefinitely. These are persons who lost their all when their household goods were swept away. They must be provided with a few necessary household articles, such as bedding, pots and pans, stoves and a few dollars.

"A half million dollars could be used in this way by the relief committee.

"Fifteen thousand houses and business buildings must be rehabilitated.

"Two thousand houses and other structures, or what remains of them, must be pulled down.

"Thousands of tons of debris removed."

Following are some of the accomplishments since the flood broke over the city Tuesday morning:

The water works pumping station is in operation, but distribution of water is greatly retarded by open pipes in wrecked houses. The pressure is feeble but getting stronger as leaks are stopped.

DAYTON'S PROBLEM.

Main Sewer Is Intact.

The main sanitary sewer is in operation, although many of the laterals leading from houses are clogged with mud or backed up water.

The flood sewers, separate from the sanitary, will be in operation tomorrow. These sewers carry off the rainfall from the gutters and are needed now to receive the water being pumped from basements.

Telegraph service is fast catching up with requirements which have been and are now enormous. Brave service has been performed by the telegraph and telephone linemen who made possible the dissemination of news to hundreds and thousands of friends and relatives of Daytonians. They swam icy floods and entered tottering buildings unhesitatingly in pursuance of their duty.

John H. Patterson, chairman of the general committee, last night found many operators who had not removed shoes or clothing since last Tuesday.

There is enough food and clothing for present needs, but relief will be required on a diminishing scale for another month.

Patterson Names Treasurer.

Chairman Patterson announced that W. H. Bippus will act as treasurer for all contributions and will make a strict accounting to all contributors.

By order of Governor Cox the reign of martial law over Dayton was extended to take in the whole county today. The flood did more than sweep away property, for it swept away the city administration, temporarily at least, and brought in what amounts to a commission form of government.

Immediately martial law was proclaimed, the municipal administration was eclipsed. Adjutant General Wood, for the moment, became supreme under the governor. On the heels of this, Mr. Patterson was appointed chairman of a committee of five to administer the affairs of the city. The militia was instructed to obey his orders and thus became a police force.

It is doubtful if the martial law order will soon be repealed, as under the present arrangement the city has the free services of the biggest business men and the most expert professional men in Montgomery county.

The extension of the area under martial law developed action today by local dealers whose places are closed. They complained that saloons in the outskirts are sending whiskey into the city, and that considerable drunkenness had been observed. Adjutant General Wood reported the situation to the governor and his action was prompt and decisive.

CHILLICOOTHE ISSUES NEWSPAPER.

Chillicothe has issued an eight-sheet newspaper which gives accurate information up to its publication. Eleven deaths are reported in Friday's edition.

The paper says that Hickory street, in front of the residence of Mr. Willard Story, father of Mr. Willard Story, Jr., of this city, is a raging torrent and the street washed a depth of 20 feet.

LATEST

Special to Herald.

Columbus, Ohio, March 31.—The flood conditions in the north and central portions of Ohio are greatly improved today.

Fifteen bodies have been recovered here today, bringing the total dead bodies recovered to 63.

A relayed message from Waverly, Ohio, says that the city of Portsmouth is not on fire, and that no serious fires have occurred in that city since it became flood bound.

Latest reports are to the effect that the crest of the Ohio river flood is now passing Gallipolis, with the river rising at Marietta, Ironton and Portsmouth, at which places all previous records of high water have already been surpassed.

At Marietta the river has reached a stage of 59 feet and still rising. At Huntington, 15,000 people out of a population of 40,000 have been driven from their homes.

At Hamilton the relief committee reports that the total death list in that city will reach 100. Additional bodies are being uncovered by rescuers and workmen.

Cairo, Ill., reports that all levees are holding securely, and that it is believed they will hold until the crest of the present flood has passed.

Louisville, Ky., reports a stage of 43.7 feet, a rise of 1.06 feet in the last 24 hours.

Troy, Ohio, reports that the dead bodies recovered to date in that city number 14.

At Lawrenceburg, Ind., over one-half of the city is under water, and 50 buildings in the business section have been destroyed by the flood. The loss of life is supposed to be small.

At Piqua, Ohio, 19 dead bodies have already been recovered, and at Zanesville six have been recovered.

Telegram From Missouri and Texas

Mrs. Eva Penn, worthy grand matron of Ohio O. E. S., has received the following telegrams from the grand matrons, O. E. S. in Missouri and Texas:

"Mrs. Eva J. Penn, Grand Matron O. E. S., State of Ohio:

"In behalf of the state of Missouri I send sincerest sympathy. Do you need assistance? Answer immediately.

JULIA Z. FREYMAN, Grand Matron Missouri."

"Mrs. Eva J. Penn, Grand Matron of Ohio.

"The sympathy of Texas, O. E. S., is with you in this disaster. If aid is needed a message to Mrs. B. C. Leonard, grand secretary, Fort Worth, Texas, will bring willing reply.

NETTIE B. HILL, Grand Matron."

Mrs. Penn wired the thanks of the O. E. S. of Ohio and replied that the state was caring for its own.

Gratifying indeed is the sympathy and proffers of help as sent from these southern states.

B. & O. Fill Carried Away

The immense fill at Gest street, Cincinnati, was carried away about nine o'clock this morning, and the B. & O. and C. H. & D. tracks were washed away for a considerable distance.

It will require many days to rebuild the tracks at the point where destroyed, and through service from Cincinnati has been postponed indefinitely.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Offer Declined

Governor Cox today rejected Sir Thomas Lipton's contribution of $1,000.

In doing so the governor followed the precedent established by ex-President Roosevelt in rejecting all foreign contributions which were offered for San Francisco earthquake sufferers.

Columbus, Ohio.—Gov. Cox expects to ask the Ohio Legislature to recess over this week because of flood conditions.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Mr. Earl Post reports the safety of his family in Columbus and the 7 people who had taken refuge in his home. Among them are three little children, and so far no information in regard to who they are or from where they came has been learned.

Herman Morris, of Bloomingburg, was one of those caught in Columbus by the flood last week and detained until Sunday.

A telegram was received by the Herald from Mrs. Mary E. Gleason, in Dayton, announcing the safety of her family.

Mr. E. T. Evans returned Sunday morning from a search for relatives in Dayton. He found both Mr. Clifford Peters and Mr. Oliver Hartzel and their families safe, having been just out of the flood district. Mr.

Evans says that the recently built big concrete bridges, with their heavy abutments, acting like huge dams, holding the water back, are largely responsible for throwing the water back through the city.

Fred Kelly found his father Mr. Tom Kelly and brother Lawrence, safe in in the second story of their rooming house in Dayton.

Crest of Ohio River

Citizens Ordered to Stay at Home.

No disorders have yet occurred but it is feared by the mayor that with the city in almost total darkness looters will begin their work. Mayor Phillips also has ordered that all citizens remain off the streets after nightfall under penalty of being arrested and lodged in jail.

Tonight the stage of the river had registered 68.6 feet, a rise of exactly one foot since 3 o'clock this morning. According to the weather bureau the rise has been at the rate of .2 of a foot every three hours. The weather authorities said they expected the crest of the flood to reach Cincinnati tomorrow morning and that the stage would then be between 69 and 70 feet, after which the river would gradually begin to subside.

Conditions here practically remain unchanged today with the exception that the river has preempted more of the section lying along the water front. The streets in that section are all under water and relief measures are going forward with energy.

While many of the residents have been driven from their homes, others, who live in taller buildings, refused to leave and food is being supplied them with motor and row boats.

Poor People Suffer.

In this city the poorer residents are the greater sufferers as that section in which they make their homes has been completely inundated and many of the houses have been swept away by the swift current of the river. As the water rose, however, most of these people had an opportunity to bring away their personal belongings and their losses are confined to the contents of their homes.

The property loss in the Cincinnati water front section will be very large. It is estimated by competent authorities that the loss to valuable stocks of merchandise will reach nearly $2,000,000. This does not take into account the damage to many of the older buildings where the foundations have been undermined by the rapid current. This will be great in the opinion of experts who have made an examination of the district and are familiar with conditions.

Today the river front was the mecca of thousands of curious sightseers who had been attracted by the spectacle of the rushing yellow flood of the river, inundating the city south of Third street to a point almost as high as that attained by the record flood of 1884, when a stage of 71.2 feet was registered.

Relief measures here are more than adequate and so far there has been no suffering.

The inundated district is being patrolled by an extra police force and also by officials of the city health department.

Secretary of War Garrison has been well over the flooded district, and went from this city to Columbus over the B. & O. railroad.

He was in this city 15 minutes, leaving at 9:45, but talked with no one.

A party including Congressman Post, learning that he was here, rushed to the depot, but the train had just left.

PLANNING APPROPRIATIONS FOR REPAIR OF THE PIKES.

County Auditor Henkle has received a letter, copies of which have been mailed to every auditor, board of commissioners and county surveyors in every county in the state, asking that an immediate estimate of the damage done to county pikes and bridges be made and filed with the State Highway Commissioner, so that the amount could be included in a possible appropriation to be made by the legislature to cover the damage done in each county.

It is expected that early legislation will be put through whereby state aid will be rendered to the various counties for repair of roads and bridges.

There will probably be some objection to the measure, however, as the loss in some counties will reach $1,000,000 or more, while in others a few hundred or thousand will cover the damage.

LOCAL FACTORIES RESUME.

The various industries in the city which were forced to close down on account of the flood, are resuming work, but it will be a day or two before the Washington Milling Company's plant will be running night and day again.

The plant closed down at six o'clock last Wednesday morning, and has since remained inactive on account of the water in the basement.

Searchers Find Body of Man Drowned in Creek

The body of William Kinzer, who was drowned in Paint creek over a week ago has just been recovered.

Not until Sunday, despite the greatest effort were the searchers able to locate the body of either one of the unfortunate men. They were setting a trot line when their boat capsized.

Sunday morning searchers discovered the body of Mr. Kinzer wedged in some drift wood two miles below Bainbridge. The body of Blaker has not yet been recovered.

Lost in Riverdale

Mrs. Linn Hoppes has received the sad word that her nieces, Geneva Lynch and Margaret Anderson are thought lost in the flood at their home in Riverdale. No trace of them can be learned and two unknown bodies answer to their description.

Mrs. Lynch is safe.

Relief Work and Refugees

The local Relief committee has turned its work from Dayton to Columbus, receiving word that Dayton is not needing anything at present.

The Columbus relief headquarters sent in a call for meat, eggs, and underwear for women and children.

A car was shipped to Columbus this afternoon in answer to this call.

In addition to the stocks of underwear sent from dry goods firms of the city there were 100 garments made by the women of Bloomingburg on Saturday. Twenty-five women of that burg sewed all day making up garments for children and their forethought provided a supply ready for the sudden call.

This morning a load of provisions and $60 in money was brought up from the kindhearted people of Lees Creek.

While things are regaining their normal conditions as fast as possible, and responses have been wonderfully generous, the flooded region is vast and only such liberal response as has been made could answer its need. The local relief committee is only giving attention to the requests sent out from relief headquarters in the stricken cities.

130 oil stoves stored in the Standard Oil company's plant, were forwarded to Columbus Sunday.

The men who were sent over from Dayton with the party of refugees Saturday and have been cared for at the Y. M. C. A., returned to Dayton Monday and will go to work at headquarters. The women and children will be taken care of here for the present.

The Y. M. C. A., which has been relief headquarters, is being thoroughly fumigated this afternoon and will be in the usual running order by tomorrow.

RAILROAD CONDITIONS.

The C. H. & D. is now clear and open to traffic between this city and Chillicothe, and a train is now being run between the two points, coming from Dayton in the morning and returning in the afternoon.

The D. T. & I. is able to run trains between Springfield and the outskirts of Greenfield, and like the C. H. & D. the repair work is moving forward rapidly.

On the Pennsylvania no trains have been run between Morrow and Williamsport, but within a day or two trains will be running to Lancaster, it is believed. It so happened that not an available engine was caught between the Scioto river and Morrow, and the repair work has been done under great difficulties, but under the supervision of G. H. Linton, of this city, is moving forward remarkably well.

Word has been received that the officials at Zanesville are all safe. It will be several weeks before the service through the division is normal, as a number of bridges must be replaced.

No fixed schedule has as yet been announced on the B. & O., the road is now operating two trains between Cumminsville and Broad street, carrying passengers and mail. The one west-bound reached here at 10:15 Monday morning, and the one from the west arrived about 2:00 o'clock.

Buy a Diamond Joe Cigar.

Mail Arrives

For several days during the week the only newspapers handled through the post office was The Herald and a few copies of Springfield papers.

Saturday the flood of mail broke loose in the shape of 40 bags of mail from Columbus. This was followed Sunday evening by an additional 30 bags.

When the Cincinnati mail arrives there will be three or four score bags of belated letters, papers, packages and the like.

In order to handle the large mail Saturday night and Sunday the clerks worked hard for several hours and the postoffice was opened Sunday morning and Sunday evening.

Monday all rural carriers were overwhelmed with the accumulated mail matter.

Last Week and This

The week which passed into history with midnight of Saturday will be remembered as one of horror and destruction by the people of the Central sections of Ohio. Men and women have suffered tortures of mind and body and undergone great property loss.

Few indeed were the men and women in the stricken sections who could take the terrible happenings, the tale of disaster piled on disaster as each came along in its order, every hour and every minute almost, adding its tale of unbelievable horror of flood and fire, philosophically and remain calm.

The nervous strain on those who escaped the actual horrors of the disasters and the physical sufferings were scarcely exceeded by that which friends and relatives endured penned up in the districts held in the flood's grasp.

The suspense of waiting hour after hour and day after day has made of nearly all nervous and physical wrecks.

Every news gathering agency, every vehicle for the dissemination of news was pressed day and night to the limit. Not only was the insistent public clamoring wildly for every scrap of information obtainable and insisting on more and yet more, but anxious interested men and women were constantly bombarding every newspaper, telephone and telegraph office for confirmation or denial of the wildest rumors which started as they always do in times like these, from some mysterious source, gaining in horror and apparent authenticity as they traveled from ear to ear.

People were ready in their nervous wroughtup condition to listen to any wild tale of new disaster.

The impossible had happened—precedent had been shattered, fancied safety of city and town and hamlet had been proven by the riotous, uncontrollable elements to be an empty shell. Why not another "impossible" disaster.

News gatherers were further handicapped by the almost total annihilation of telephone and telegraph lines.

Through it all these public servants who gather all the news, sift out the reliable from the unreliable and aim to give to the anxious public the facts, worked on the job without sleep or food for days and nights.

It was a time when the unbelievable was verified and when the impossible was given for fact and confirmed from numberless sources.

The wave of destruction has passed on to the valley of the Ohio river and there the tales of last week promise to be duplicated during the present week.

All the people can do is to be patient, hope for the best and retain as far as possible a level head.

The greatest trouble in times like these is that so many people exaggerate in their excitement and hinder rather than help in the work of getting at the facts. Hour by hour the work of rebuilding the telegraph and telephone wires goes on and inch by inch insistent man rushes into the zone held by the elements and soon all will be known.

When the strain is over and the best is made known along with the worst, people should remember the demand made for news and the meager and uncertain news obtainable.

Work done at the time of stress should not be measured by work done under normal conditions.

The wildest claims as to the loss of property has not been exaggerated, but the loss of life has not been nearly so great as the first estimates, the known condition of the flood and its destruction seemed to fully warrant.

For which stricken humanity is thankful.

It is a mean man who will regret his generosity given rein in the horror of the moment when only estimates were obtainable. It is a mean man who does not glory in the fact that estimates of the loss of life were not borne out by later facts. It is a mean man who regrets that the relief work may be overdone, that generous humanity rushed more than was necessary to the relief of the suffering.

Generous impulses cannot be weighed out on fine scales which balance to a hair the necessity and the supply, and if generous thoughts and generous deeds have come in more than an abundance to meet the needs of the occasion it is glorious and not a condition at which carping pessimists may sneer.

Living Under High Pressure

By the Rev. CHARLES B. BULLARD of East Orange, N. J.

WE grow our chickens in eight weeks and eat them broiled in FIFTEEN MINUTES. We can HARDLY WAIT TO READ. Moving pictures must tell us the day's news. Sermons must be exceedingly short. We CAN SCARCELY STOP TO BURY OUR DEAD. Messages are in codes. Business orders are in monosyllables.

ONE RESULT SHOWS ITSELF PHYSICALLY. PEOPLE BECOME NEUROTIC AND HYSTERIC. YOUR SELF FORGETFUL PERSON IS SENSITIVE AND WORRIED AND YOUR SELFISH PERSON DISTURBING AND DISAGREEABLE. NOT A FEW, SLEEPLESS AND DESPONDENT, WISH THEMSELVES DEAD. NATURE CRIES OUT FOR CALMNESS AND REST.

High pressure is felt in business. Get-rich-quick schemes flourish. COMPETITION IS KEEN AND CRUEL and crowds men to cheat in goods and measure. 'An honest man is worth while in these days, and he must ROW AGAINST THE TIDE.

INTERESTING
BITS OF NEWS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

Standard time was adopted in Ohio just 29 years ago this month, which gives one an idea of how far behind the time are the people who do not use it.

Wilmington has been having much trouble fighting fires the past few months. On several occasions the fire hydrants were frozen up, and one day last week the ladder wagon got mired in the mud and could not be extricated until a team of mules were secured to assist the team. Meanwhile the building burned down.

The Universal Portland Cement company has just started the construction of plant No. 7 at Duluth. The new mill will cost $1,700,000 with an output of 1,400,000 barrels, which is the average of the other six plants.

An entirely new secret order has been formed at Newark, Ohio. The originators call the society, "The Order of Apes" and already many inquiries are pouring in and many different cities are petitioning for a charter in the new lodge.

The Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh made a pilgrimage through Ohio some time ago that proved such a success as a business getter that they are planning another special train and this time the train will pass over the C. & M. V. railroad, and likely a stop will be made in Washington.

Contracts for the expenditure of $325,000,000 for subways called the greatest transaction of its kind in history were made last week. The city of New York enters into an agreement with its two principal railway companies for the operation of the new subway system, now under construction.

Year's first arrivals of spring lambs at Chicago the first of the week averaged 39 pounds in weight, and brought $15 per 100 pounds. Missouri river packing centers are so hampered by storms that quotations are barely possible from them.

The shore along Lake Erie from Ashtabula to Conneaut is dotted with large peach farms. For the handling of the large crop an association of fruit growers of that vicinity has been formed. This peach belt, while yet small, will soon rival the largest in the United States. The new industry is the result of the "back to the soil" movement started some years ago and given an impetus by the work of the state department of agriculture.

A GLIMPSE BACK
THROUGH YEARS

July 28, 1867.

We understand that Mr. J. F. Ely has let the contract for a block of business rooms, to be put up next spring on Main street, extending from his warehouse to the building occupied by Mr. John Sanders. The building we understand, will be three stories high and contain several good business rooms on the ground floor.

New Library:—The Presbyterian Sabbath school of our town has purchased at a cost of about $150, a new library of over 500 volumes, comprising a choice selection of interesting and instructive reading matter from the best authors, and adapted to the wants of children as well as older persons.

Base Ball Mania:—We can scarcely pick up an exchange paper but that contains some account of a base-ball club in its village, town or city; in fact there seems to be a base ball mania raging with alarming fury all over the country.

The Board of Education has bought one acre of land from James Campbell for a colored school. Price paid $400.

Pianos:—Decker Bros., Kanabe, Steinway, Chickering and many other excellent pianos for sale by D. S. Johnson. Church and parlor organs, superior to any others, fully warranted, for sale by D. S. Johnson.

The trustees of the Union schools in this village have secured the services of P. E. Morehouse, lately of the Bloomingburg academy as superintendent and Mr. E. B. Champlin as teacher in the higher departments of the school. Six competent lady teachers have been employed to take charge of the rooms of the school, namely, Miss Callie Wherett, Miss E. E. Wood, Miss Elizabeth Wood, Miss Genie Plumb, Miss Clara Rawlings and Miss Jones.

$10,000 for Repairs

Mr. Edwin Weaver, county commissioner, estimates the loss to roads and bridges in Fayette county near the $10,000 mark.

In addition to one span of the Ghormley's bridge being carried out and the one on Bethel Lane in Northern Fayette, great damage has been done to other structures where the water has washed about the abutments and piers.

Damage to pikes has been the largest ever known, and hardly a pike in the county escaped being cut more or less by the waters crossing them where culverts and streams proved inadequate to carry the waters as fast as they collected.

Taken all in all Fayette county had a remarkable escape from greater damage by the floods.

Many farmers lost heavily by the shifting sands of the streams.

AUTO TIRE TUBE LIFE PRESERVERS

Dr. E. H. Mallow, a former resident of this city, now located at 625 North Main street, Dayton, is one of the many who used novel methods for preserving the lives of those in his home.

When over taken by the flood he and his wife and a young woman who was with them, were forced into the attic of their home, and Dr. Mallow, believing they would be carried away, secured some automobile inner tubes which he inflated and fastened about the two women and himself.

He chopped a hole through the roof and rescued one drowning man. Fortunately their home withstood the flood and they escaped late Thursday, having fared very well on boiled eggs and the like.

FRANKFORT SUFFERS HEAVY LOSS DURING THE RECENT FLOODS

Homes Were Flooded and Portions of the Sears & Nichols Canning Plant Collapsed, While Farms Are Washed to Pieces and Lumber Yard Is Wrecked in Greatest Flood Ever Known in Village.

North Fork of Paint creek is the stream which caused heavy loss of property in and near Frankfort during the past week, when part of the town was inundated, streets ruined, portions of buildings wrecked and havoc wrought in general.

In addition to the havoc in Frankfort and to pikes and farms, the C. H. & D. was washed out for a considerable distance, causing heavy loss to that road.

The levee near the S. M. Darby farm broke and flooded the surrounding territory.

The J. W. Ott lumber yards were badly wrecked and damaged, but most of the lumber was saved.

There was nearly two feet of water in the C. H. & D. depot during the flood.

The big concrete building of the Sears & Nichols Canning Company was undermined by the swift current, and a great part of the south wall fell outward, allowing a large number of shipping cases to be carried away and inflicting heavy damage to the plant.

The losses due to homes being flooded will be heavy in and near the village. A number of persons had narrow escapes from being drowned.

Frankfort was so thoroughly cut off from the remainder of the world that very little information as to what was going on outside of the town could be obtained until late in the week.

BODY OF MAN WHO SAVED THIRTY.

Columbus, O., March 30.—"That's J. Merton Briggs of Briggsdale, the young man who sacrificed his own life after saving 30 others," said J. M. Shooler of 55 West Patterson avenue, when shown the body at the Town street morgue. Mr. Shooler was associated with Mr. Briggs in bank affairs for several years and established the identity by means of a small diamond ring worn by the Briggsdale hero.

Mr. Briggs was the son of the wealthiest resident of the hamlet. Fears have been expressed for the safety of the father who is an ex-county commissioner.

The body also was identified by Miss Grace Wilcox, Coroner Benkert's stenographer, who lives near the Briggs home.

REMOVING DEAD HORSES.

Columbus, O., March 30.—The city health department will make an effort immediately to remove the bodies of all animals and fowls that were caught in the driftwood and along fences in West Mound street. Yesterday morning the odor was very bad, the heat of the sun causing the bodies to decompose. Several horses were found clogged in front yards. Chickens are in almost every street and alley.

An official made the rounds and reported to the health office the conditions. The animal ambulance can be taken through that section now.

The first work in Dayton was that of removing dead animals and those of human beings who were drowned.

DR. L. P. HOWELL GIVES ENCOURAGEMENT.

Dr. L. P. Howell, who accompanied the relief supplies to Dayton Thursday returned Saturday morning and brings back most encouraging news up to Friday night only 70 deaths had been reported and Dr. Howell gives his opinion that not more than 200 will be found in the list of drowned.

Astonishing as it seems of the large number of those who have been without food and without fire, very few are in a serious condition. Dr. Howell went on relief duty at the National Cash Register upon his arrival and was in touch with the situation at the Cash, which is taking care of thousands. He says John H. Patterson is "the whole thing in Dayton". He is giving free transportation to all who wish to leave the city and burying the unidentified at his own expense.

Dr. Howell's mother, Mrs. Montgomery, and sister, were found quite safe. As far as Dr. Howell could learn there were no deaths among Washington people.

HOMELESS IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

East Liverpool, March 29.—More than 1000 families have been driven from their homes by the flood and 5000 potters are temporarily out of employment. The city waterworks, electric light plant, trolley lines and railroads are tied up.

TWO DAYS OF HORSE SHOW

The postponement of the Washington Horse Show from Monday of this week, due to the high waters and consequent interruption of railway traffic, will mean an even larger show than previously planned, and the two days' show announced for April 21st and 22nd will be much greater than the one day show previously planned.

Additional horses have already been added, together with numerous attractions which warrant the holding of a two days' show instead of one.

Additional advertising has commenced, and everything will be planned to make the show a hummer, as well as the sale which follows it.

Try it on a table top or anything you wish to refinish. Note the ease of application—the self-levelling qualities—which leaves no brush marks, and which proves the absence of benzine—which causes varnishes to set too quickly and shows laps and brush marks.

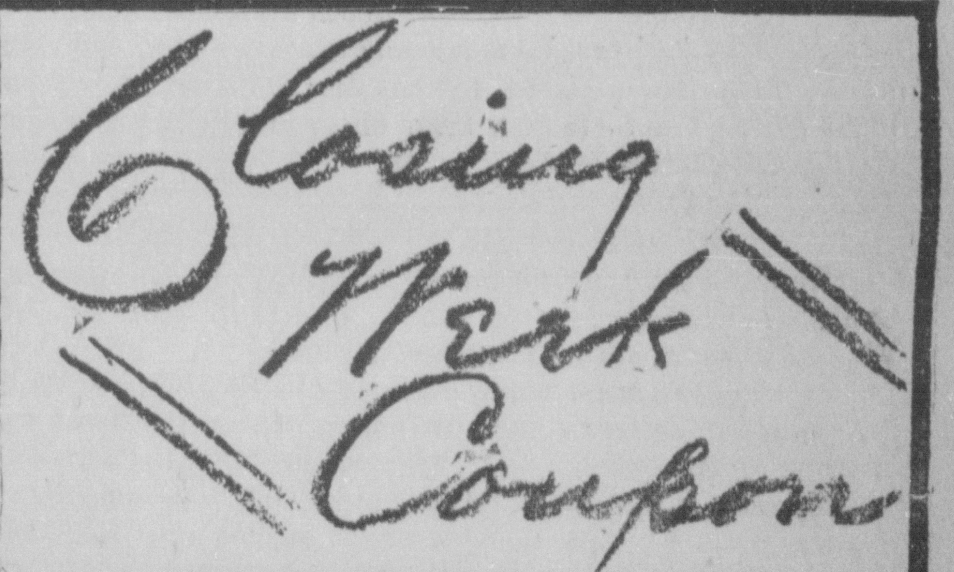

When thoroughly dry note its hardness and toughness, and that it does not powder or turn white under heat, moisture or a blow.

This proves that CHI-NAMEL contains no rosin. Note also its covering capacity, which proves that although CHI-NAMEL sells at 90c per quart it is cheaper by the square foot than other varnishes, a quart covering an ordinary surface of 100 square feet, two coats.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN IS DEAD

© 1913, by American Press Association.
J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

Rome, March 31st.—J. Pierpont Morgan, the great American financier, who has been confined to his hotel in this city since Easter Sunday, died this morning at 6:05 o'clock, New York time.

Mr. Morgan was stricken with an attack of cerebral anaemia while attending church Easter Sunday and from that attack he never rallied.

It is intimated by his friends that the nervous shock attendant upon his appearance before the Pujo Money Trust Probe committee of Congress had much to do with his nervous collapse.

William Pierson Hamilton, a partner in the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., left New York for Liverpool today aboard the Adriatic.

He was to have been accompanied by Henry P. Davison another member of the firm, but Mr. Davison at the last moment concluded to take a later ship, and will probably leave during the coming week.

REACH HOME BY THE HARDEST.

Kenneth Kyle, with two of his O. W. U. classmates, Carl Campbell, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and S. E. Harrison, of New Vienna, got home from Delaware with much difficulty Saturday morning. They were taken over the rushing river at Delaware by cable and came by auto to Orient. From there they caught a train to Mt. Sterling and finished the trip by auto.

Messrs. Campbell and Harrison will remain Mr. Kyle's guests.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Handsomely engraved cards bearing the following announcement were sent out Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. William Fenton Morford announce the marriage of their daughter, Marie Lucile to Mr. Jesse Persinger Wednesday, March 26th, 1913, Sabina, O.

The announcement is one of widely extended interest, and will elicit many congratulations from both Washington C. H. and Sabina circles. The bridegroom, the son of Mr. John L. Persinger, one of the largest landowners in this section of the state, is himself a wealthy and progressive young farmer, managing large Persinger farms in different parts of the county. He has traveled extensively and is interested in club and social activities.

The bride is the daughter of a well known Sabina dry goods merchant and is a charming young girl and talented musician. Her home was formerly in Columbus, but during her short residence in Sabina she has been exceedingly popular and will find an equally warm welcome awaiting her in Washington C. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Persinger will be at home after April 15th, Washington C. H., O.

Another Mad Dog Scare

Quite a little excitement was created in this city Monday morning when a dog, alleged to be suffering from the rabies, was discovered attacking other dogs and trying to bite several persons.

After being pursued from Blueville through the main part of the city and to a point in the southern part of the city the dog was shot by one of the numerous pursuers.

Quite a crowd of men and boys joined in the chase, but more made a hurried escape from the brute's path.

It is not known whether or not the animal succeeded in biting anyone, and it is thought it was at large some time before its condition was discovered.

Burglars Nabbed

"Buster" Perry, 19, Albert Hughes, 25, and Willie West, 30, colored, are reposing in the county jail awaiting action of the grand jury before which body they must answer to a charge of burglary and larceny committed in Good Hope several days ago, and for which offense they were bound over under the sum of $300, with Perry under an additional $100 for the part he played in the affair.

The Joseph McQuay store was broken into and a large quantity of goods of various kinds was stolen from the place. The side window had been smashed in.

A little investigation resulted in the apprehension of Hughes, West and R. Anderson, in Greenfield, and during their hearing it was established that the men with the exception of Anderson, had had a hand in the robbery.

The two men were bound over to the grand jury and brought to the jail. Later further information resulted in the arrest of "Buster" (Albert) Perry, also of Greenfield, who was tried before the Justice at Good Hope Saturday and bound over.

Still further information resulted in the re-arrest of Anderson, and Monday morning Constable Perry of Wayne township went after him to bring him back and have his hearing before Justice Fealy.

It is claimed the men have admitted the theft, as part of the stolen goods was found upon them.

Upon information from Sheriff Nelson the remainder of the plunder was located in Greenfield, where it had been hidden by one of the men.

The quartet of fellows have reputations which are not of the best, it is claimed, and Greenfield is glad to get rid of at least part of them.

Large congregations filled the Presbyterian church both Sunday morning and evening, when Rev. William Irwin Campbell delivered his farewell sermons, and the evening service declared the pulpit of the Presbyterian church vacant.

At the morning service a number were received into the church.

Rev. Campbell's morning sermon was a strong address on "Presbyterianism", the foundation upon which it is built, its tenets and doctrines.

After the usual opening exercises of the evening service Rev. Campbell made an affecting and dignified farewell address. After speaking very beautifully of his conception of the minister's special work as a helper of men, bringing to them the spirit of optimism as taught through the gospel of Christ, he closed his talk with a few personal references to his own work of the past three years. Deeply conscientious and earnest, the pastor leaves a record of 191 names added to the church roll during his ministry, but beyond the happiness this gives him is the satisfaction of feeling that he has built up the church upon a solid working foundation, its organization effected to mean great possibilities. The congregation was deeply touched by Rev. Campbell's heartsome words of farewell and hope for the church's continued growth in all things spiritual.

A reception will be given in honor of Rev. Campbell by the Mary Hale Bible class and the Brotherhood Wednesday night.

Elizabeth Coader, aged one year, daughter of John and Maude Coader, died at the residence on East Temple street Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Funeral services were held at the residence Monday afternoon and burial was made in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. JANE SHEETS.

Mrs. Jane Sheets, aged 75 years, died Thursday night, March 27th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilson McCoy, in Dayton. She was the mother of Wm. Sheets, of this city. They were in the flooded district, but Mrs. Sheets died from natural causes. The body was brought to this city Monday morning on the C. H. & D. railway, and taken to the home of her son, Wm. Sheets, on Broadway. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the M. E. church in Bloomingburg. Burial in Bloomingburg cemetery.

FAREWELL MEETING.

Of Temple Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Last night a large number of the members of Temple lodge met in special session in honor of their distinguished brother, Rev. William I. Campbell, who will soon leave to take up his residence in Washington, D. C.

The evening was made very interesting by the older members of the lodge giving their Odd Fellow experiences and reminiscences.

Never before has any one received more well wishes on leaving Washington C. H., and Rev. Campbell responded splendidly in a masterful address of appreciation of the estimate he placed upon Odd Fellowship and the high esteem in which he held the membership.

The entire affair will afford pleasant recollections for Bro. Campbell for years to come.

OLIVE TABLETS OIL THE BOWELS

A Physician's Substitute for Dangerous Calomel.

When you feel that your liver and bowels need help take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Substitute for Calomel. Calomel is effective, but dangerous—causing bad after-effects.

Olive Tablets are especially made to take the place of Calomel. Dr. Edwards for years has been Calomel's foe. He saw its dangers and its disadvantages in 17 years' practice, treating patients for all kinds of liver and bowel complaints. In his efforts to do without Calomel he developed his now famous little olive-oil-colored tablets. Olive Tablets are mild but effective. Safe and sure. Pleasant to take but unfailing in results.

Olive Tablets oil the bowels just enough to start Nature's own action, and they tone up the liver at the same time. They are made from a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

If you want to regain that feeling of joyous buoyancy and clear thought take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They work like a vacation. 10 and 25 cents per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA

Is too often the fatal sequence, La Grippe coughs hang on, weaken the system, and lower the vital resistance. R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J. says: "I was troubled with a severe La Grippe cough and was completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. Before I had taken one half of a bottle of Feley's Honey and Tar Compound, the coughing spells had entirely ceased. I wish to say it can't be beat. All others are imitations." Blackmer & Tanquary. ## GOWANS

King of External Preparations will do all that is claimed for it. Druggists say so. It is absolutely certain that if our claims were not well founded the popularity of GOWAN'S would not increase in the astounding proportion that it does. From everywhere comes most encouraging letters; sales are multiplying and while your money will be refunded cheerfully, if our Preparation fails to do what we claim for it, it is a singular thing that instead of wanting their money back patrons want more of the great External Preparation.

Have recommended Gowan's Preparation for Sore Throat, Congested Lungs, Stiff Necks, Sprains, and any Soreness or Inflammatory condition and have never been disappointed in results.

They Are One of the Important Products of Every State.

Among all the staples our county produces, nothing is more useful than children. They not only preside over our educational experts with an inexhaustible mine of material to expound theories with, but they furnish the motive power for some of our principal factories, and the present low price of coal is due to their efforts. Thus we see that Providence always provides us with the wherewithal to live within our means.

Children are cultivated in every state in the union. Up to the age of seven or eight they are scarcely any use at all, except to talk about, but after that they can begin to earn good money.

They are also useful in other ways. A young girl of ten or twelve, who is too delicate to work, may often make herself useful by rushing the growler and waiting on a drunken father. Some time when a young boy or girl are run over by a trolley or auto, they may get enough in damages to keep the wolf from the door.

It is a great blessing that children are cultivated in greater numbers by the poor than by the rich. Thus our principal industries are kept supplied with plenty of hands to do the work.
